Physical Control, Transformation and Damage in the First World War Jan 24 2020 From enlistment in 1914 to the end of service in 1918, British men's bodies were constructed, conditioned, and controlled in the pursuit of allied victory. Physical Control, Transformation and Damage in the First World War considers the physical and psychological impact of conflict on individuals and asks the question of who, in the heart of war, really had control of the soldier's body. As men learned to fight they became fitter, healthier, and physically more agile, yet much of this was quickly undone once they entered the fray and became wounded, died, or harmed their own bodies to escape. Employing a wealth of sources, including personal testimonies, official records, and oral accounts, Simon Harold Walker sheds much-needed light on soldiers' own experiences of World War I as they were forced into martial moulds and then abandoned in the aftermath of combat. In this book, Walker expertly synthesizes military, sociological, and medical history to provide a unique top-down history of individual soldiers' experiences during the Great War, giving a voice to the thousands of missing, mutilated, and muted men who fought for their country. The result is a fascinating exploration of body cultures, power, and the British army.

Natural Resources Law Sep 19 2019 Offering broad national coverage on an array of topics, Natural Resources Law, Fourth Edition conveys the drama behind resource disputes and policy and the love-of-place. Most cases are introduced with a photo or map of the place, along with a context-setting paragraph. Each group of cases—both foundational cases as well as new decisions—begins with a factually rich discussion problem tailored to the cases that follow. Many problems mirror traditional essay exam questions; others raise contemporary policy issues. This highly teachable book groups readings into discrete, assignment-sized chunks of 25-40 pages, allowing coverage of 2-4 cases or one problem during each class section. The main emphasis is on primary sources, and each chapter opens with relevant statutory and regulatory sections.

College & University Food Service Manual Jul 10 2021 Abstract: The successful college food service director has enthusiasm, empathy, dedication, ethics, quality consciousness, an outgoing personality, leadership ability, food service knowledge, business knowledge, close association with other food service professionals, and awareness of and dedication to good nutrition. A new food service director chronologically prioritizes steps to take to reorganize his operation. The manual presents reorganization steps chronologically to include: 1) developing a master plan; 2) setting up a food purchasing system; 3) establishing budgets and control; 4) building a staff; 5) maintaining food quality; and 6) dealing with residence halls, cash operations, vending, sanitation, safety, catering, special events, and public relations. Appendixes and exhibits provide illustrative, helpful suggestions. A food service director's job can be creative, imaginative, challenging, interesting, and rewarding for the director who is on top of things.

Interkultur in Organisationen Jul 18 2019 Richard Bettmann zeigt, dass die Tätigkeit in interkulturellen Arbeitsteams nicht zwangsläufig zu interkultureller Kommunikation und damit zur Ausbildung lokaldiskursiv geformter, interkultureller Arbeitspraktiken im engeren Sinne führen muss. Auf methodischer Ebene wird deutlich, dass Identitätsarbeits- und Kommunikationsprozesse sowie ihr Einfluss auf die kommunikative Konstruktion lokaler Welten nur unter Berücksichtigung des jeweiligen Handlungskontextes hinreichend verstanden werden können. Nicht überall dort, wo man sie vermutet, läuft auch tatsächlich ‚interkulturelle‘ Kommunikation ab.
